DOMENICO WINES AWARDED FIVE MEDALS IN NATIONAL WOMEN'S WINE COMPETITION

*Total Number Of Domenico Awards Now
74 In Less Than 21 Months*

San Carlos, Calif.—March 25, 2007—Domenico Wines, one of the fastest growing, family-owned artisan wineries in the U.S., was awarded five new medals in the 2007 National Women's Wine Competition this month. The National Women's Wine Competition is comprised of an all-star panel of leading women in the wine industry. More than 1,800 individual wines were judged from 523 wineries representing 31 states. The common theme of the award-winning wines was that they were well-crafted, showing elegance and integration.

The five new Domenico medals bring the total number of awards to 74 since Domenico was founded less than 21 months ago. Domenico Wines that were awarded medals are:

2004 Aglianico – Gold
2004 Merlot – Silver
2004 Nebbiolo - Silver
2005 Barrel Fermented Chardonnay - Bronze
2004 Cabernet Sauvignon – Bronze

“In most wine competitions, only about 25 percent of the judges are women,” said Domenico master winemaker, Dominick Chirichillo. “The National Women's Wine Competition is the only national wine competition judged entirely by women, and Domenico is honored to be recognized by such a renowned and esteemed panel of judges,” Chirichillo said.

The National Women's Wine Competition is a joint project between Women for WineSense, the nation's largest organization devoted to women and wine, and Five Star Events, a 100% woman-owned company organized for the purpose of producing the event. More information can be found at www.nwwc.com.
